AMENDED ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT INJUNCTION (JUDGMENT)

Plaintiffs were previously compelled to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration Act (SORA), Mo. Rev. Stat. §589.400-589.425. As part of their registration obligation, they were required to submit photographs of themselves to the Defendant James F. Keathley, designated Superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol. The photographs submitted by plaintiffs were made a part of their SORA registration and disseminated to the public by posting them on websites on the Internet and by other means. On June 30, 2006, the Missouri Supreme Court held in Doe v. Phillips, 194 S.W.3d 833 (Mo. 2006), that, as applied to the plaintiffs (except Jane Doe III<sup>1</sup>), the registration requirements of MO. REV. STAT. §§ 589.400 to 589.425 (SORA) violated the Missouri Constitution's prohibition on retrospective application of the laws.

In accordance with the Supreme Court's decision, defendants have ceased requiring
